The mission of Saint Lucy Parish is to lead people to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. We live our faith by welcoming and serving.

La misión de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía es guiar a la comunidad a una relación transformadora con Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica. Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio y al dar la bienvenida.

After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. Luke 5:4-6

Jesus had just cured Simon Peter's mother-in-law as one of His first miracles. As a result of this and other miracles, Peter's entire hometown of Capernaum, as well as many of the surrounding towns, were quickly coming to faith in Jesus. Today's Gospel takes place during this initial excitement over our Lord. In it, Jesus personally invites Peter to become an Apostle, promising to make him a fisher of men.

There is much symbolism in this passage worth pondering. First, notice that Jesus uses something very familiar to Peter to invite Him to become one of the Twelve Apostles. He used his trade of fishing. This is similar to the way God used a star to draw the Magi, who were astrologers, to Bethlehem. Another symbolic action Jesus uses is that of putting out "into deep water." It was not enough to simply go a short distance from shore. Instead, the deep water was to symbolize the fact that the Gospel was to go forth to the ends of the earth, just as the fishermen were to fish in the depths of the sea. (Continued on page 4...)

Quando terminó de hablar, le dijo a Simón: «Boga mar adentro y echad las redes para pescar». Simón le respondió: «Maestro, hemos estado trabajando toda la noche y no hemos pescado nada; pero, si me lo ordenas, echaré las redes». Lo hicieron y pescaron una gran cantidad de peces, y las redes se rompían. Lucas 5:4-6

Jesús acababa de curar a la suegra de Simón Pedro, uno de sus primeros milagros. Como resultado de este y otros milagros, toda la ciudad natal de Pedro, Cafarnaúm, así como muchas de las ciudades de los alrededores, rápidamente estaban creyendo en Jesús. El Evangelio de hoy se desarrolla durante este entusiasmo inicial por nuestro Señor. En él, Jesús invita personalmente a Pedro a convertirse en apóstol, prometiéndole convertirlo en pescador de hombres.

Hay mucho simbolismo en este pasaje que vale la pena reflexionar. En primer lugar, observemos que Jesús utiliza algo que a Pedro le resulta muy familiar para invitarlo a convertirse en uno de los doce apóstoles. Utilizó su oficio de pescador. Esto es similar a la forma en que Dios utilizó una estrella para atraer a los magos, que eran astrólogos, a Belén.

*Otro gesto simbólico que utiliza Jesús es el de remar "mar adentro". No bastaba con alejarse un poco de la orilla, sino que las aguas profundas simbolizaban que el Evangelio debía llegar hasta los confines de la tierra, tal como los pescadores pescaban en las profundidades del mar. Finally, the fact that they “caught a great number of fish” symbolizes the superabundance that would come forth through Peter’s apostolic ministry. And the fact that the “nets were tearing” points to the fullness that everyone will experience when they embark upon the mission of Christ.

Though the symbolic aspects of this Gospel passage are worth much prayerful pondering, there is another line within the Gospel that might speak to you just as powerfully. Peter had been fishing all night and had caught nothing. The fact that he relates this to Jesus suggests that he was tired and perhaps even discouraged. Any fisherman could relate to this. But the important lesson Peter teaches us is that he does not give in to that discouragement. And the reason he doesn’t give in to discouragement is because it was Jesus Who commanded him to lower the nets.

In our own lives, we can all get discouraged at times. But the real test of our fidelity to God is whether or not we continue to listen to His commands of love and respond generously, dispelling any temptations to discouragement when things do not seem to be going our way. If we can do this, it is especially in these moments that God often uses us in powerful ways.

Reflect, today, upon the voice of God in your life. What is it that you sense Him calling you to do? What is that “deep water” to which He is calling you? As you ponder this, reflect especially upon the words of Peter, “Master...at your command I will lower the nets.” Say “Yes” to the command of our Lord. Do so even if it is difficult, and especially if you do not feel like doing what He asks of you. If you do, you will find that in this act of fidelity, God will bring forth an abundance of good fruit. - from mycatholiclife.com

Por último, el hecho de que “capturaran una gran cantidad de peces” simboliza la superabundancia que surgiría a través del ministerio apostólico de Pedro. Y el hecho de que “las redes se rompieran” indica la plenitud que todos experimentarán cuando se embarquen en la misión de Cristo.

Aunque los aspectos simbólicos de este pasaje del Evangelio merecen mucha reflexión y oración, hay otra frase en el Evangelio que puede hablarte con igual fuerza. Pedro había estado pescando toda la noche y no había pescado nada. El hecho de que se lo relacione a Jesús sugiere que estaba cansado y tal vez incluso desanimado. Cualquier pescador podría identificarse con esto. Pero la lección importante que Pedro nos enseña es que no se deja llevar por ese desánimo. Y la razón por la que no se deja llevar por el desánimo es porque fue Jesús quien le ordenó que echara las redes.

En nuestra propia vida, todos podemos desanimarnos en algún momento. Pero la verdadera prueba de nuestra fidelidad a Dios es si continuamos escuchando sus mandamientos de amor y respondemos generosamente, disipando cualquier tentación de desaliento cuando las cosas no parecen salir como queremos. Si podemos hacer esto, es especialmente en esos momentos en los que Dios nos usa de maneras poderosas. Reflexiona hoy sobre la voz de Dios en tu vida. ¿Qué es lo que sientes que Él te llama a hacer? ¿Cuál es esa “agua profunda” a la que Él te está llamando? Mientras reflexionas sobre esto, reflexiona especialmente sobre las palabras de Pedro: “Maestro... cuando tú lo ordenes, echaré las redes”. Di “Sí” al mandato de nuestro Señor. Hazlo aunque sea difícil, y especialmente si no tienes ganas de hacer lo que Él te pide. Si lo haces, descubrirás que en este acto de fidelidad, Dios producirá una abundancia de buenos frutos.— de mycatholiclife.com

Message from the Principal

Dear Parishioners,

January was a busy month! Catholic Schools Week was a success and we loved celebrating our community, priests, parents, grandparents, faculty, and students. You are all such an important part of what makes St. Lucy Parish School so special.

Our students are also 100 days smarter and we celebrated our 100th day of school. Students across campus celebrated big! Kinder students practiced grouping 100 items, 2nd grade brought out their creative side using the number 100, and 3rd grade reflected on 100 accomplishments they have made.

The school year is flying by and the 100th day of school is a great time to look back and reflect on all the amazing growth our students have had both academically and spiritually since the beginning of the school year.

Sincerely,

Sue Grover
